* Teams will not be wearing jerseys that have #'s on them for this year's Spring League. It will be the referee's discretion as to when a player will need to sit out because of aggressive behavior on the floor. This is a Spring League designed for teams to get better and get ready for the 2010 season. It is not about winning every game. We have some of the best refs in the Shore Conference doing these games, I am 100% confident in them to call a fair game. I ask for the full support of the coaches in this matter.
